Hi Kevin,

I got this email from a writer for the British Medical Journal. I think the conference he references may have been one you organized. Do you have a minute for a quick phone call?

Steve,

Thanks for speaking with me. As I explained, I'm working on a story about scientific outreach for BMJ. I'm trying to track down who organized and funded this conference that you guys had in 2014.

The press release for the 2014 conference at the University of Florida is here: https://request.hs.iastate.edu/news/uploads/news/20140307_BLP_Prospectus_CDR_March_2014.pdf

Can you help me out on understanding who organized and funded this? I'm hearing different stories. I'm hoping you can get back to me by Friday.

Have a great day.

Thanks,
Paul
